14:00–15:30 Panel discussion 'Türkiye and Russia: Economic Partnership in the Context of New Opportunities'
Ballroom 1

Türkiye and Russia have for many years been developing multifaceted cooperation covering various sectors of the economy. These ties have become an important factor in the economic development of both countries. Despite objective geopolitical challenges, the business communities of both countries continue to show sustained interest in expanding cooperation, which creates favourable conditions for joint development. Which industries have the greatest potential for growth in bilateral trade turnover? Which mechanisms can enhance the predictability and security of business cooperation? How can investment interaction and joint projects be expanded? What role can regions, industry unions and business associations play in developing the partnership? Which new formats of cooperation are most in demand in industry, the agro-industrial complex and SMEs?

15:30–17:00 B2B meetings, networking
Ballroom 2
